Chers amis de l'Auberge,

It's been 25 years since we embarked together and today we are setting sail for our annual holiday, light hearted and carefree!

But as well we are looking forward to see you again in 2017, where we will celebrate the diversity of cultures starting with our opening week end:

Friday March 24th at 8pm

the IDiK duo, witty and captivating:

2 guitars, 2 voices, and 2000 smiles
through South America, Spain and France

Meal + concert 38 € + 10 €
(reservation requested please!)

Saturday March 25th at 6pm

opening exhibit for

Sadik FARABI, Montpellier painter

His art embraces his Maghreb roots and is permeated with a deep earthiness.
Don't miss this remarkably colourful show!

Our next guests: Max WULFF on the piano May 20th, then an art show with wine aficionado Michel TOLMER'S drawings and his friend the sculptor MIMI, who will display his monumental works throughout the park of the Auberge. The art show opening and wine tasting with the Mas Foulaquier on June 2nd.

Starting September 1st, painter Christine NEGRE will expose her nuanced landscapes and figures.

So many opportunities to share great moments with simplicity and warmth over a glass of wine or a good meal.

May the New Year begin!
